MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR:

There is one thing that we all need in our lives in order to celebrate Thanksgiving this upcoming week.

Thanksgiving is a great day. I love the turkey. My mom makes it once a year.

But that is not the thing that we need in order to celebrate Thanksgiving.

Some people like sweet potatoes. I just think they are ok. Some people put marshmallows on them. I think that is strange...personal opinion. But whether you love them or not, they are not what you need to celebrate thanksgiving.

Stuffing. My mom makes her own...the whole bit...gets the bread from the bread store, dries it out, etc...it is amazing...especially the partially burnt stuff. But you don't even need stuffing in order to celebrate Thanksgiving.

One thing I really like about Thanksgiving is the chance to see family. I know this can be a hard time for some folks because they have lost family members and it really hurts around the holidays. But as a matter a fact, you don't even need family to celebrate Thanksgiving.

But there is one thing that you absolutely must have to celebrate Thanksgiving...to celebrate it with meaning – to actually experience a sentiment of feeling thankful.

You need TIME TO REFLECT.

It's amazing how much time we can spend working, being busy trying to accomplish things, but all the while our life can pass quickly by without us taking the time to reflect upon how much we have been given and how blessed are our lives...in which case we never feel thankful.

We need time to reflect upon our lives in order for us to recognize the gifts, blessings and graces we have received. Only after we have had time to reflect will we feel genuinely thankful (that is why having a prayer life all year long and every day is essential to having an attitude of gratitude...because it slows us down to reflect). No time for reflection = no thankfulness.

Thanksgiving is all about feeling thankful for what we have been given, most especially by what we have been given by God (the bible says every good and perfect gift comes from God).

Feeling thankful is the only thing that must be there in order to celebrate Thanksgiving. - Fr Rossi

Communion Meditation Song:

"How Beautiful"

How beautiful the hands that served, the wine and the bread and the sons of the earth. How beautiful the feet that walked the long dusty roads and the hill to the cross.

Refrain

How beautiful. How beautiful. How beautiful, is the Body of Christ.

How beautiful the heart that bled, that took all my sin and bore it instead. How beautiful the tender eyes that choose to forgive and never despise.

Bridge

And as he laid down his life, we offer this sacrifice.
That we will live, just as he died, willing to pay the price.
Willing to pay the price.

How beautiful the radiant bride who waits for her groom with his light in her eyes. How beautiful when humble hearts give the fruit of pure lives so that others may live.

How beautiful the feet that bring the sound of good news and the love of the King. How beautiful the hands that serve the wine and the bread and the sons of the earth.

SPC Emergency #: 804-402-1221 - If someone is dying or has died & you would like to talk with a priest, please call the emergency number at any time.
