Message from our Pastor:

REMINDER – HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION THIS FRIDAY FOR ALL SAINTS. ALL CATHOLICS ARE EXPECTED TO ATTEND MASS.

We have Mass at St Patrick at 7pm, at St Peter at 12:05pm, and at St John at 9am and 7pm.

*All Saints is an amazing Feast day because it celebrates an amazing aspect of our faith.
There is a myriad of individuals who have conquered sin and temptation, have been crowned in glory in Heaven, and who look down on us here below praying for us and cheering us on.*

There is a saint for every personality type and circumstance. If you think there is no one who can relate to what you have or are going through you are incorrect! There are martyr saints, old saints, young saints, rich saints, poor saints, healthy saints, sick saints, saints who struggled with envy, gluttony, greed, lust, pride, sloth, and wrath. There is a saint just like you! And they can show you the way to be holy and fight to live for Christ every day.

If you do not have a few saints who you are personally in a spiritual relationship with, then you are missing out! They are your friends!

*I ask for prayers from St Joseph, St Francis, St Anthony, St Paul, St Gabriel the Sorrows, St
Charles Borromeo, St Pius X, St Jose Maria Escriva, St John Vianney, St Padre Pio, St John Paul II, St Teresa Calcutta to name a few. Who are yours? You do you relate to???*
They are your buddies. You should see them as having their arm on your shoulder, walking with you through life.

*What a gift of our Catholic faith!!!
- Fr Rossi*
