Message from Father Maxwell:

Prayerful blessings to all!
So soon the summer vacation is over, and our kids are back to school to begin the school year. Thank God they are safe from the Covid-19 infection.
However, for their continued safety from the pandemic's Delta variant which is surging/spreading so rapidly and dangerously, parents are advised not to forget to let them comply with the CDC guidelines of mandatory wearing of masks at school.

We love our kids so much and we are praying for them always to be safe.

And to the teachers, your role in bringing up our future leaders is very much appreciated, and as a Ghanaian educationist once said; "if you educate a child, you educate a nation," since children will one day take up leadership positions as adults.

Surely, the teachers' reward will be very great some day for all their efforts and sacrifices for our kids.

On behalf of the cluster churches of Sts. Peter, Patrick, and John, I wish all teachers and the Kids, a very fruitful and Covid-free school year.

- Fr. Maxwell
