Message from the Administrator's Desk:

"The Lord is truly risen, hallelujah hallelujah"

Every Sunday after Easter is dedicated to the Divine Mercy, began by St. John Paul II of blessed memory. On this day, special prayers are said for the sick and the dying. Prayer for Divine Mercy on that day is as follows: O Greatly Merciful God, infinite Goodness, today all mankind calls out from the abyss of its misery to Your mercy - to Your compassion, O God; and it is with its mighty voice of misery that it cries out. Gracious God do not reject the prayer of this earth's exiles! O Lord, Goodness beyond our understanding, who are acquainted with our misery through and through and know that by our own power we cannot ascend to You, we implore You, anticipate us with Your grace and keep on increasing Your mercy in us, that we may faithfully do your Holy will all through our life and at death's hour. Let the omnipotence of Your mercy shield us from the darts of our salvation's enemies, that we may with confidence, as Your children, await Your son's final coming - that day known to You alone. And we expect to obtain everything promised us by Jesus in spite of all our wretchedness. For Jesus is our Hope: Through His merciful Heart, as through an open gate, we pass through to heaven. Amen (Diary of St. Faustina, 1570) Find time to say this prayer with your family. Happy Easter. -Father Maxwell
