Sunday is July 2nd:

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear people of God, the church celebrates today “Corpus Christi.” It is from Latin which simply means the Body of Christ. This is the center of the catholic faith, and that is what the universal church celebrates as a special feast (the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ) after the Trinity Sunday, in honor of the real presence of the body of Christ in the Eucharist, commemorating Jesus’ last supper with his disciples whereby he gave them his true body and blood in the form of bread and wine, proclaiming the truth of the Transubstantiation.

According to the decree on Holy Communion and worship of the Eucharist outside Mass by the Congregation of Divine Worship of the Holy See, a procession of the Eucharist in the Monstrance on this feast day is desirable since it truly shows a sign of common faith and adoration. On this note, I wish you all a joyous Corpus Christi celebration.

Praised be Jesus Christ.

Fr. Maxwell

Happy
Father's Day
