FEAST DAY CELEBRATIONS

We have feast days honoring our patrons: Saint Peter (Feast of the Chair of Saint Peter, Saturday, February 22, or alternatively, the Feast of Saints Peter and Paul, Sunday, June 29); Saint Patrick (Monday, March 17). We should start planning for them now. Anyone interested? So far, folks have asked about hosting a reception at Saint Peter, and a Mass with a procession and fellowship at Saint Patrick. The earlier we start planning the better! Who is willing to help?

PRAYER FOR THE INTERCESSION OF SERVANT OF GOD FRANK PARTER

Loving Father, your servant Frank Parater sought perfection as a student, scout and seminarian. He offered himself to you completely through the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Through his intercession, may young people answer your call to follow Jesus as priests, deacons and religious. Grant, as well, the favors I seek, so that your Church will recognize his holiness and proclaim him Blessed. Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE PASTOR'S WEEKLY REFLECTION/ REFLEXIÓN SEMANAL DEL PASTOR

The Feast of the Epiphany celebrated on January 6, or in the modern calendar, it is transferred to the closest Sunday. It celebrates the manifestation of Christ to the world through the presentation of the three-fold gifts of the magi. One of the customs connected to the feast is the blessing of homes. For your growth in the faith, I invite you to pick up a prepared bag of chalk with a prayer and instructions for blessing your home, found at the back of the Church.

As time permits, you might also consider inviting Fr. Redmond or myself to your home for a blessing, at some point, as we begin the new year. It is a good opportunity for us to get to know you and ensure we have a tangible connection with you outside of liturgical celebrations.

This Christian custom of chalking the door has a biblical root as the Israelites in the Old Testament marked their doors with the lamb's blood on the night of the Passover:

“And they shall take of the blood thereof, and put it upon both the side posts, and on the upper door posts of the houses, wherein they shall eat it” (Exodus 12:7).

“Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is one Lord. Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with thy whole heart, and with thy whole soul, and with thy whole strength. And these words which I command thee this day, shall be in thy heart: And thou shalt tell them to thy children, and thou shalt meditate upon them sitting in thy house, and walking on thy journey, sleeping and rising. And thou shalt bind them as a sign on thy hand, and they shall be and shall move between thy eyes. And thou shalt write them in the entry, and on the doors of thy house.” (Deuteronomy 6:4-6, 9)

Please be assured of my prayers this week.

We all have lots of traditions for Christmas, do you have any established for other feasts? One way to help maintain and grow the Faith is to ensure we have cultural traditions as staples in our homes.

Thank you for your continued generosity to our parishes. Thank you also for your patience as we worked this week to get caught up in presenting the financial position of the parishes to our communities.

La fiesta de la Epifanía, que se celebra el 6 de enero o, en el calendario moderno, se traslada al domingo más cercano, celebra la manifestación de Cristo al mundo a través de la presentación de los tres dones de los magos. Una de las costumbres relacionadas con la fiesta es la bendición de los hogares. Para su crecimiento en la fe, los invito a recoger una bolsa de tiza preparada con una oración e instrucciones para bendecir su hogar, que se encuentra en la parte trasera de la iglesia.

Si el tiempo lo permite, también pueden considerar invitar al padre Redmond o a mí a su hogar para una bendición, en algún momento, al comenzar el nuevo año. Es una buena oportunidad para que los conozcamos y nos aseguremos de tener una conexión tangible con ustedes fuera de las celebraciones litúrgicas.

Esta costumbre cristiana de marcar la puerta con tiza tiene una raíz bíblica, ya que los israelitas en el Antiguo Testamento marcaban sus puertas con la sangre del cordero en la noche de la Pascua:

“Y tomarán de su sangre, y la pondrán en los dos postes y en los quicios de las casas en que lo han de comer” (Éxodo 12:7).

“Oye, Israel: Jehová nuestro Dios, Jehová uno es. Amarás a Jehová tu Dios con todo tu corazón, y con toda tu alma, y con todas tus fuerzas. Y estas palabras que yo te mando hoy, estarán sobre tu corazón; y las contarás a tus hijos, y meditarás en ellas sentado en tu casa, y andando por el camino, durmiendo y levantándote. Y las atarás como una señal en tu mano, y estarán y se moverán entre tus ojos. Y las escribirás en la entrada y en las puertas de tu casa” (Deuteronomio 6:4-6, 9).

Tengan la seguridad de que esta semana los acompañaré en mis oraciones.

Todos tenemos muchas tradiciones para Navidad, ¿tienes alguna establecida para otras fiestas? Una forma de ayudar a mantener y hacer crecer la fe es asegurarnos de que tengamos tradiciones culturales como elementos básicos en nuestros hogares.

Gracias por su constante generosidad hacia nuestras parroquias. Gracias también por su paciencia mientras trabajábamos esta semana para ponernos al día con la presentación de la situación financiera de las parroquias a nuestras comunidades.

MUSIC AT SAINT PATRICK & SAINT JOHN

The celebration of Christmas is not just one day, but a whole octave! Traditionally, major feasts, such as Christmas and Easter, had eight full days of celebration, equal to the principal feast. In fact, the Marian antiphon we sing at the end of mass, Alma Redemptoris Mater, continues until the feast of the Presentation of Jesus at the Temple (Feb 2nd). The text provides a beautiful meditation for us during the season of Christmas:

O loving Mother of our Redeemer, gate of heaven, star of the sea,
Hasten to aid thy fallen people who strive to rise once more.

Thou who brought forth thy holy Creator,
all creation wond'ring,
Yet remainest ever Virgin,
taking from Gabriel's lips
that joyful "Hail!":
be merciful to us sinners.

May we continue to celebrate with joy and thankful hearts, the arrival of Our Lord, as we move toward the celebrations of Epiphany and Jesus' Baptism.

Epiphany Blessing
20+C+M+B+25

The numbers represent the year (2025); The letters represent both the traditional names of the Magi (Caspar, Melchior, Balthasar), and the phrase "Christus mansionem benedicat," Latin for "May Christ Bless this House." The phrase is written, on the door frame of the front of a house or a bedroom.

MUSICA EN SAN PATRICIO & SAN JUAN

La celebración de la Navidad no es sólo un día, sino una octava entera. Tradicionalmente, las fiestas mayores, como la Navidad y la Pascua, tenían ocho días completos de celebración, igual a la fiesta principal. De hecho, la antífona mariana que cantamos al final de la misa, Alma Redemptoris Mater, continúa hasta la fiesta de la Presentación de Jesús en el Templo (2 de febrero). El texto nos ofrece una hermosa meditación durante la temporada de Navidad:

Madre del Redentor, virgen fecunda puerta del cielo siempre abierta, estrella del mar, ven a librar al pueblo que tropieza y se quiere levantar.
Ante la admiración de cielo y tierra, engendraste a tu Santo Creador, y permanece siempre Virgen. Recibe el saludo del ángel Gabriel, y ten piedad de nosotros, pecadores

Que sigamos celebrando con alegría y corazones agradecidos la llegada de Nuestro Señor, mientras nos acercamos a las celebraciones de la Epifanía y el Bautismo de Jesús.

Bendición de la casa para la Epifanía
20+C+M+B+25

Los números representan el año (2025); las letras representan tanto los nombres tradicionales de los Reyes Magos (Gaspar, Melchor, Baltasar) como la frase "Christus mansionem benedicat", que en latín significa "Que Cristo bendiga esta casa". La frase está escrita en el marco de la puerta del frente de una casa o de un dormitorio.

SAINT PATRICK

Founded in France in 1610 by Saints Francis de Sales and Jane de Chantal, The Sisters of the Visitation have been a part of the Richmond area since 1866. Their current convent is located in Rockville but they spent many years at Monte Maria in Church Hill. A contemplative order, the Sisters spend their days praying. They also bake altar breads for churches, including Saint Patrick, for income to support their Order. Daily mass is also offered in their chapel with visitors always welcome. They seek support from the Richmond community as well as vocations to continue their mission. For more information on the Sisters of Visitation: <https://www.visitmontemaria.com>, 804-749-4885.

Dear friends,

It is with gratitude that we present the Annual Report to the parish on your generosity in supporting our parish community. As you can see, we have attempted to be careful and clear with our spending. The significant area of expenditure in the last year has been on various expenses to keep up maintenance on the building. We're in process to plan for a maintenance fund for the parish to support our efforts in protecting and enhancing our historic Church. Thank you for your continued support and sacrifices.

Dear Friends,

I'm pleased to present the 2023-24 Financial Report for the parish. You'll note the finance council's diligence, as well as the staff's attention, to income and expenses has allowed us to be in a very healthy place to continue various ministry efforts. We've place a significant amount of our cash on hand (see right column - "Cash, Checking & Savings") in short-term investments until we are ready to continue various renewal projects around the Church. Thank you for your generosity, sacrifice and commitment to our parish community.
